Love the Despair

By Alexkun1999

I have waited for you for so long, my saviours... Almost one month, one month staying in this cave, I couldn't live here more time... And now, you have appeared, my saviours... I'm so happy for this...
I have dreaming about this day, when someone like you...
My saviour
Is this guy stoned? What the fuck is he saying? I don't undestand him.
HEY!!! Step Aside!!! I'm taliking with my saviour

Oh, he wasn't talking about me He is talking about...
RAY
Are you talking me?
Of course my saviour, I have dreamed about this day for so long, when someone like you come and save me from this nightmare
Could be that this guy only knows those words...
I think that he's retarded
Ostia, tio maybe you should explain yourself, we don't get anything
Oh excuse me, I will

Everyone sit down
I have been in this cave for at least one month, I counted the nights to know this
I awoke in the grass, in the middle of the night, alone, there was nothing in that place, even there wasn't a single star, only grass...
Also...I couldn't remember anything, where I live, my age, if I have family, job, nothing, I can't remember something about me, I only have one thing in my head, my name...
Sergio... That's my name...

I walked around for almost one hour...
Until I found something...
I found... a giant rock...
When I get closer to it...it awoke
So I started to flee from it

Just as we
Oh, so was the same for you? Interesting...
As I was saying...
The rock was so fast, it almost caught me I was on my limit... I couldn't run anymore...
But...something happened...
The rock was gone...
But... something was there instead...
A huge reptile head... watching me...

Fear filled me...
It stared at me with bloodlust
So I closed my eyes waiting for my death
But...
When I open my eyes ....
I was alone again...

A huge lizard head?
Are you sure?
I don't know what to think about this place, but I'm sure that I saw it
Then...after walking for a while...
I found this cave
And I have been living here for almost one month...or at least it seems to be that time acording to the nights
One month?
And what do you eat and drink?
Oh, when I came here, there were many mushrooms, some grass and a big puddle, so I could ate them and drink sometimes, but now only are leftovers, maybe I could eat for 3 days until I die

I want to know something. Why do you tell me "Saviour"?
Yeah that's strange and makes you look like a weirdo
Oh yeah, about that We can't escape from here, this is the only safe place around. Because there's a valley filled of giant rocks...
Once I tried to flee, but is impossible, or at least is in that way if you're alone, for that everyone, but especially you, Ray...
In this cave, I found food and water...but also I found this!!!
A chariot!!!
I don't know how it ended here. It has enough space to transport all the girls, and the boys will pull it with those ropes...It's perfect!!!

Basically, you want us, to be your horses
Yup
Wait a moment, I don't get something, is not the same if we run together than go on the chariot?
The only advantage I can think is that we can help the slow ones, but there's no other good thing about it
That's true
Ahjajajajajajajajajajajajajajajajaja
Even I think we're worse in the chariot, we'll be easy captured by the rocks, if we stay so close each other
You're wrong glasses...I have a trump card against the rocks...

I have this.
This giant hammer was also here in the cave, I can lift it and swing it, so I can use it against the rocks

It's too big
Oh My God
It remembers me to a game
A hammer? Ahjajajajaja
That shape
I think I get the idea
Madre mia
That's a nice toy
So your plan is to crush them with the hammer if they get so close? Is a good idea
You need to learn when to shut your mouth
Shut up emo boy
So who's gonna help me?

LET'S DO IT!!!

I don't know why... but I know that something is wrong here...I mean, he gave us a shitty explanation about what happened to him and why we can't escape from here alone, but, we never tried to cross that valley in our own, is possible that his history is true, but also is possible that don't...

He doesn't remember anything or he don't want to tell us... Also Glasses complained about his plan, but Jayson agree with he, normally those two have reason, but who is right this time?
Everyone agreed with him so fast, but we don't know him, it's strange. How is possible that he has been here for one month? He really ate mushrooms and drank from a puddle all this time? And that hammer and chariot... Nothing makes sense to me...

I'm having a bad feeling
